New original animated series Clarence premieres Monday 3rd November at 5:30pm

Clarence, the latest original animated comedy series from Cartoon Network premieres on Monday 3rd November at 5:30pm. The refreshingly funny and heartfelt Clarence joins Adventure Time, Regular Show, The Amazing World of Gumball, Uncle Grandpa and Steven Universe for a powerhouse comedic line-up every Monday and Friday night on Cartoon Network.

Clarence is an optimistic, spirited, lovable boy who sees the best in everyone and everything, because to Clarence, everything is amazing! The series celebrates the best of childhood: epic dirt fights, awkward crushes, trampoline combat, sleepover pranks and secret tree forts - all through the eyes of Clarence.

Clarence's novel perspective transforms nearly any situation, however mundane, into the best day ever. No matter what happens, good or bad, nothing brings Clarence down. Clarence shares his adventures with his remarkable group of friends and family. His two best friends include the scrappy Sumo (voiced by Tom Kenny, Adventure Time) and cautious Jeff (voiced by Sean Giambrone, The Goldbergs). Keeping Clarence contained is the responsibility of his sassy and patient mum Mary (voiced by Katie Crown) and her laid-back boyfriend Chad (voiced by Eric Edelstein). Set in Aberdale, a charming small town, Clarence's stories are inspired by the triumphs and tragedies of childhood. Although, in Clarence's hands, these stories always veer off the main road, if not off the map entirely.

Clarence was conceived as part of Cartoon Network Studios' thriving and prolific shorts development program which also created the network's latest hit animated series Steven Universe, Uncle Grandpa and Regular Show.

Clarence premieres on Cartoon Network on Monday, 3rd November at 5:30pm and rolls out every Monday and Friday night.
