Adult Swim Brings “On the Green” to The Big City

Robot Chicken Reveals Inside Look at The Walking Dead Special

New York Comic Con is getting a little Greener with Adult Swim. Start off the Con right with Adult Swim’s popular traveling experience Adult Swim On the Green, Tuesday, October 3 at Socrates Sculpture Park in Queens, New York. Experience Mother Nature in all her glory along with games, new friends, food trucks and trivia for exclusive prizes. Continuing their commitment to directly engage with fans, experience a fantastic night full of Adult Swim fun and surprises. Also enjoy a free screening of “Things You’ve Never Seen Before” for a look at what’s on the horizon for Adult Swim, the top destination with millennials for more than a decade, with unaired episodes, never before seen pilots and specials. For additional information please visit AdultSwimPresents.com.

Later that week, make your way over to the Hammerstein Ballroom on Friday, October 6 for a special look at the all-new Robot Chicken Walking Dead Special: Look Who’s Walking and check out what is to come in Robot Chicken season 9. On Saturday, October 7, Robot Chicken will be signing autographs at the Private Autographing station at the Javits Center. Robot Chicken Walking Dead Special: Look Who’s Walking premieres Sunday, October 8 at Midnight and Robot Chicken season 9 premieres this Winter on Adult Swim.

Need more? The #Rickmobile will be rolling through the NYC Tri-State area October 5-8. Track the mad scientist’s movements online as the custom mobile pop-up shop stocked with exclusive Rick and Morty items makes its way to New York.

Panel and signing, as well as talent scheduled to appear are subject to change. For continuing information about Adult Swim’s plans at New York Comic Con please visit AdultSwimPresents.com.
