Live Digital Coverage to be Presented Across Twitch, ELEAGUE.com & YouTube

Turner and IMG's ELEAGUE, in partnership with Warner Bros. Interactive Entertainment, will culminate the first-ever ELEAGUE Injustice 2 World Championship Presented by PS4, with the final four competitors facing off for the title of World Champion and the largest share of the event's $250,000 prize pool. Live gameplay coverage will begin Friday, Nov. 10, at 10 p.m. ET across TBS, Twitch, ELEAGUE.com and YouTube.

The double elimination, best-of-five Playoffs bracket will feature several compelling storylines, including a chance at glory for both players who emerged from the event's Last Chance Qualifier. Christian "ForeverKing" Quiles and Denom "FoxyGrampa" Jones will look to continue improbable streaks marked by numerous upsets in the group stages, playing as Batman and Deadshot respectively. Group A's first place finisher Ryan "Dragon" Walker will rely primarily on Black Adam as he looks to build on momentum from his recent EVO victory, while Group B top seed Sayed "Tekken Master" Hashem Ahmed will employ the unpredictable fighting style of Atrocitus. ELEAGUE's live Playoffs coverage will also feature the exclusive reveal of Injustice 2's Fighter Pack 3, the next three in-game characters to be made available for players to use.
