In last night's live episode of The Chris Gethard Show, Chris Gethard announced to fans the news they've been waiting for: truTV has picked up the late-night talk show for an additional 10 hour-long episodes, which will premiere in spring 2018. The series debuted on truTV in August and stars Gethard as he attempts to ring-lead a panel of comedian friends and special guests, along with a live studio audience, who participate in games, tackle bizarre stunts and react to the controlled chaos around them.

The inventive, highly-interactive series has amassed a passionate community of engaged fans, generated significant critical-acclaim, and attracted a host of A-list celebrity guests thus far this season including Method Man, John Oliver, Wanda Sykes, John Mulaney, Gillian Jacobs, Tig Notaro, Patton Oswalt, Ellie Kemper, Adam Palley and more.

Before making the announcement on live television, in a gesture that signaled the continued importance of and his commitment to the show's fanbase, Chris called one random fan to share the news and let her be the first to know.
