UPCOMING GAME COVERAGE

Wednesday, July 11, 2018

MLB on TBS weekly game coverage will showcase consecutive weeks of full national telecasts, beginning with a rematch of last year's American League Division Series - the New York Yankees and All-Star starter Aaron Judge vs. the Cleveland Indians and their MLB-leading five All-Stars, including starters Francisco Lindor and Jose Ramirez - Sunday, July 15, at 1 p.m. ET. Brian Anderson (play-by-play) will be joined by analyst Ron Darling to call the game.

Following the MLB All-Star break, a battle between National League Central rivals - St. Louis Cardinals vs. Chicago Cubs - will be featured on Sunday, July 22, at 2 p.m. ET. Ernie Johnson and Darling will provide commentary for the Cardinals/Cubs telecast.

The network's upcoming live game schedule and telecast notes follow.

The graphic features the MLB on TBS logo at the top center. Below it, four team logos are displayed in a row: the Yankees logo, the Cleveland Indians 'C' logo, the St. Louis Cardinals logo, and the Chicago Cubs logo. Under the Yankees logo is a blue box with the text: "Sunday, July 15, at 1 p.m. ET", "Brian Anderson (PxP)", and "Ron Darling (Analyst)". Under the Cardinals and Cubs logos is another blue box with the text: "Sunday, July 22, at 2 p.m. ET", "Ernie Johnson (PxP)", and "Ron Darling (Analyst)". The background is a blurred image of a baseball stadium at night.

- Sunday, July 29, at 1:30 p.m. ET - Los Angeles Dodgers vs. Atlanta Braves
Anderson & Darling
Telecast not available locally in Los Angeles*
- TBS will nationally showcase one Sunday afternoon game through the remainder of the 2018 MLB regular season
- The network will be the exclusive home of the 2018 American League Postseason, from the Wild Card through the American League Championship Series
