Golden State's Stephen Curry and Klay Thompson Sit Down with Isiah Thomas and Joe Dumars for a Wide-Ranging Conversation

NBA TV will premiere its latest Players Only special with Splash Brothers & Bad Boys, an hour-long conversation on Wednesday, Dec. 26, at 10:30 p.m. ET featuring two of the best backcourts in NBA history.

The roundtable conversation featuring Golden State's Stephen Curry and Klay Thompson with Detroit's Isiah Thomas and Joe Dumars covers a wide range of topics, including the parallels and mutual respect between the two pairs of guards, rivalries with LeBron James and Michael Jordan, how to foster a championship mentality, building chemistry, and what makes the two Warriors teammates special.

The Players Only franchise – one of the latest NBA content initiatives to debut from Turner Sports – is centered on showcasing the game exclusively through the unique lens of the professional basketball player. The network's live game and original programming Players Only coverage incorporates a more conversational delivery and deeper insights into the game – directly from the athlete's perspective. All commentators appearing as part of Players Only are current and/or former professional players.
